They are hoarded as choicest treasures are Three little sliken and shiny locks, Three little vanished bables' hair!

They were folded and labeled by tremblin hands, With eyes so dim they could scarcely see; These three little packets with silken bands Are all of my babies left to me;

For the days come back, when upon my breast Lay the little heads, so bright and fair, When the warm sweet ligs to my own I pressed, And tenderly touched the shining bair!

And surely, though dimly, I seem to see Beyond the gates of the city fair; And the angels that nurture my bables three Touch with gentle caresses their shining hair.

The Recent Conference in Wheeling—Re-ports From the Churches—Statement to Bellef.

A Conference of the Church of Jesu Christ of Latter Day Saints was held at Wheeling, commencing January 3, 1874, at which a number of Elders from different parts were in attendance, represent-ing their several branches of the Church. William Bickerton was chosen Presi-dent of the Conference, and John Dixon, Secretary.

An Elder from West Elizabeth Alleghany county, Pa., represented the work of God as prospering in that place. That a good many had been added to the of the during the past year, and that they had begun the present year well, six having been baptized a few days before he left. He also stated that they had witnessed several cases of the sick being healed, according to the doctrine of Christ written in the Scriptures. See Mark 16, 15-18. They shall lay hands on the sick, written in the Scriptures. See share 17, 15-18. They shall all shands on the sick, and they shall recover. St. James 5, 1415. Is any sick among you? Let him call for the Edders of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and it he have committed sins they shall be torgiven him. Ho also stated that they had rebuilt and enlarged their place of worship, and that they now have a splendid house to worship in.

An elder from Little Redstone, Washington county, Pennsylvania, represented branch in that place of over seventy members. He reported several cases of healing of the sick by the proper use of the ordinance of the Church, and that they had in the last year built a new meeting house, and that the prospects in the future were in favor of the Church in that place.

An elder from a place called Victory, bear Monogahela City, Washington county, Pennsylvania, represented a branch of the Church there, stating that the Lord was with them in manifestations and gifts of the Spirit according to the language of Paul. (See Corinthians, 12

An elder from near Cambridge, Guern sey county, Ohio, represented a branch. He said the Lord was working with them, building them up in the most holy faith, and that they were realizing the gifts of the Gospel according to the promises of

This same elder, with his wile, brought their little daughter to Wheeling some six or eight weeks ago. She (the daughter) had he ague and lever. And now a word concerning Wheeling:
We have a branch here of eighteen or that we have no regular meeting house, like other denominations have, to meet in.

We are all poor. (Christ says the poor

We will now give a few of the principal points of our faith.

Division in the Episcopa I Church.

Some of your contributors on the Charch difficulty that has been agitating our community recently, make a great ado about division. They hold it up as the great bugbear, as a calamity to the Church to be deplored, and as an enormity, the sin of which is well nigh, if not wholly unpardonable. They take advantage of the fact that division in a church, or among professing Christians, is generally admitted to be a misfortune, and use it as a handle or a weapon against that where the contract of marriage is broken by death or transgression.

We believe that the doctrines of pluality and a community of wives are necessies, and are opposed to the law of add.

Nature's Cathartic. Nature's Cathartic.

No medicine is needed to keep the bowels in erder as long as nature's cathartic, the bile, flows freely and regularly from its source in the liver, and is of the right strength and quality. But the great biliary gland is easily disordered, and the consequences of its irregularities are serious. To bring it back to its natural condition when thus affected, Hotester's Stomach Bitters should be taken at least twice a day until the desired object is strained. Constipation is due to a reant supply of bile, or to a lack of the stimulating elements in that finid. In either case mere purgation is needess. The liver must be compelled to yield the supply of bile necessary to remove the waste matter from the system at least once in twenty four hours before a radical cure of costivences can be accomplished. Hostetter's Bitters produces this effect. Its action upon the stomach and liver is direct and saluary, and through these organs it regulates and invigorates the whole frame.
